DETAILED ACTION

Receipt of the two IDSs filed 03/10/04 is acknowledged. The references on the first IDS have been considered. The US references on the second IDS are repeated from the first and have been lined through. The Japanese reference on the second has been lined through since no copy was provided.

Claims 2, 4, 5, 7 and 11-53 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 10/11/05.

Applicants' election sets forth the figures on which claims 1-47 depend but is silent on the figures on which claims 48-53 depend. However, claims 48-53 do not appear to depend on elected figure 3.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In line 2, --each-- should be inserted before "said" and in line 4, "each motor" should be correlated with "said positioning mechanism" bridging lines 2 and 3.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3652

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 8, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Landsberger, et al.

Regarding claim 8, note Landsberger, column 5, lines 55-59, sets forth the use of a non-telescoping compression member which would include a spring.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Landsberger, et al. in view of the prior art figure 1 in Salisbury, Jr., et al.

It would have been an obvious substitution of equivalents to substitute a motor and parallel cable arrangement as claimed for each motor and cable in Landsberger in view of the teaching in figure 1 in Salisbury, Jr. (elements H, 8, S).
